

Wine Tasting in 5 Terre

- Manarola, walk in the vineyard and tasting of two local wines in the cellar
- Vernazza and Monterosso by boat
- Typical lunch in Vernazza

Departure from the chosen location and arrival in Manarola. Meeting with the local guide and visit to the village. Meeting with the owner of a renowned winery local, which carries out cultivation with passion of the vineyard in a wonderful and difficult territory. Will be himself to accompany you during a simple and suggestive walk in his vineyard, located on the promontory overlooking the sea and will explain to you the history and difficulties of viticulture in the area of the Cinque Terre. At the end of the visit you can taste 2 wines from his cellar. Then visit to Manarola and boat transfer to Vernazza; visit the wonderful fortified village and lunch in a restaurant in the center to taste the specialties local marinade; we particularly recommend the Vernazza Pan: it is a pan of thinly cut potatoes, to which they are added anchovies, with oil, white wine, garlic, lemon zest and tomatoes.

After lunch transfer by train to Monterosso, the only one in the Cinque Terre to be equipped with large beaches, to continue the day relaxing. Meeting with our vehicle to return to the departure location.
