

Wine Tasting and Pesto in 5 Terre

- Manarola, walk in the vineyard and tasting of two local wines in the cellar
- Pesto making class in the mortar and tasting Monterosso by boat

Departure from the chosen location and arrival at Manarola. Meeting with the local guide and visit of the village. Meeting with the owner of one renowned local winery, which carries on with passion for the cultivation of vineyards in a territory wonderful and difficult. He himself will accompany you throughout a simple and suggestive walk in his vineyard, located on the promontory overlooking the sea and will explain the history and difficulties of viticulture in the area of the Cinque Terre. At the end of the visit you can taste 2 wines from his cellar. Not far away you will be welcomed by the manager of a suggestive company that will guide you with passion in choosing the ingredients of the green sauce most famous Ligurian dish in the world: pesto. You will have the opportunity to prepare pesto in the traditional way, by pounding the ingredients inside the typical stone mortars. At the end you can enjoy the sauce on croutons of bread and focaccia. Boat transfer to Monterosso, the only one of the Cinque Terre to be equipped with large beaches, to continue the day relaxing. Meeting with our vehicle to return to the departure location.
