

Wine Tasting in 5 Terre

- Manarola, walk in the vineyard and tasting of 2 local wines in the cellar
- Pic Nic in the Vineyard
- Monterosso by boat

Departure from the chosen location and arrival in Manarola. Meeting with the local guide and visit of the village. Meeting of a renowned winery local, which carries out cultivation with passion of the vineyard in a wonderful area it's difficult. He himself will accompany you in his cellar where you can taste 2 wines typical of the Cinque Terre together with a taste of focaccia. After the tasting he will accompany you for a simple and suggestive walk in his vineyard, located on the promontory overlooking the sea and will explain the history and the difficulties of viticulture in the territory of Cinque Terre. The visit will end in the heart of the vineyard where a space has been set up simple but suggestive to consume a simple meal in the exclusive setting of Cinque Terre, overlooking the sea. Dishes will be served cold dishes typical of the area (savory pies, focaccia, salted anchovies, cheeses and honey) and you can stop to relax and enjoy the view. After lunch, boat transfer to Monterosso, the only one of the Cinque Terre to be equipped with large beaches, to continue the day relaxing.
